Objective

Innova solutions objective in establishing this Code of Conduct is to promote ethics, honesty, and professionalism within the company and among the employees. The company believes in being an integrated organization and that the action of every employee affects its entire organization and reputation. Any employee is obligated to strive for the extension of the company's interest within legal limits and responsible for preventing damage or loss of company's interest. The company expects all employees to abide by this code in carrying out their duties and functions to preserve public trust and to ensure the company's sustainable growth and development.

Purpose

The Code of Conduct expresses our commitment to conduct business ethically. It outlines standards of personal and professional conduct expected in accordance with our culture and values from all the employees.

Scope

This policy and its related procedures and measures are applicable to all employees of Innova Solutions India Private Limited.

Policy Commitment

Employees are expected to maintain the highest standards of conduct and integrity in the performance of their duties and responsibilities. An employee who fails to conform to a reasonable standard of professional and personal behavior in carrying out assigned duties or who has a disregard for laws, rules, or regulations will face disciplinary action. Employees and other parties engaging with the organization are required to comply with the code of conduct.

Employees may not: use work time to conduct political activities, solicit funds or services from coworkers for political fundraisers use an official position to influence an election or to coerce coworkers to assist in a campaign, be compelled or induced to pay any political contribution, and use Foundation resources for political activities such as the phones, office supplies, postage, photocopying machines, computers, staff support, vehicles, or office space.

No outside employment activity shall take place during normal work hours or using Innova Solutions premises, supplies, or equipment.

Our Code, however, cannot possibly address every situation we face at work. Therefore, the Code is by no means a substitute CODE OF CONDUCT for our good judgment, upon which Innova Solutions depends. We must remember that each of us is responsible for our own actions and that ethical choice is always the best choice.

Conduct

It is the duty of each employee to:

- Not use information obtained in the conduct of Innova Solutions business for personal or business advantage.
- Respect the nature of privileged or confidential information regarding Innova Solutions, its officers, board, or staff.
- Comply with all the policies and procedure of the organization.
- Be certain that a position held with Innova Solutions is never used to obtain unauthorized, illegal, or questionable benefit as it would apply to a contractor, supplier or other party doing business with Innova Solutions.
- Treat the people they interact with, both within and outside the Group, with respect and in a manner that their self-esteem and dignity are always maintained.
- Refrain from initiating or participating in workplace violence and should immediately report any credible threat or instance of workplace violence to their supervisor or Human Resources.
- To report for work on time as per the allocated shift; any tardiness like late arrivals, early departures or any floor hygiene issues including unscheduled absenteeism, process adherence, exceeding break hours will be referred to the disciplinary process.
- All employees who incur business expenses on behalf of Innova Solutions must observe Innova Solutions policies regarding reasonable and appropriate travel, entertainment, and other expenses. Employees must submit true and appropriate documentation and receipts to support claims for reimbursement.

Confidentiality

Employees are required to maintain the confidentiality of information they may acquire or possess in the course of their employment, including but not limited to information pertaining to Innova Solutions or its present or prospective employees, business partners, service providers, clients, clients' customers. Innova Solutions' successful business operation and reputation are built upon the principles of fair dealing and the ethical conduct of our employees during employment or after being relieved. All the former employees are still legally prohibited from disclosing sensitive, proprietary, trade secret, or confidential information. In case such information is disclosed, legal action will be taken.

Attendance and Punctuality

- The employees are expected to attend the office during the working hours/shifts as may be decided by the Company.
- The Company offers a 48-hours work/week for all staff and management employees. Actual work timings and working shifts hours may vary from time to time based on business and client / client's customer service requirements.
- The Company reserves the right to change the working hours at any time and employees will be advised of the changes in advance.
- In case of any business / client service requirements, exigencies, demands, etc. or in emergency situations, employees may be required to work beyond the daily working hours or on a weekly off day or public holidays as well.

- The Company expects every employee to report for work on time as per the allocated shift; any tardiness like late arrivals, early departures or any floor hygiene issues including unscheduled absenteeism, process adherence, exceeding break hours will be referred to the disciplinary process.
- Any unofficial and unjustified absence during working time may cause productivity issues that hamper the business SLA's and will be subject to disciplinary action as per HR Policy.

Background Verification

Innova Solutions performs background screening of all new joiners and reserves the right to conduct multiple screenings randomly thereafter, at its sole discretion. This is required by a combination of factors related to the nature of our business, integrity, client requirements, compliances etc. It also helps ensure common standards of integrity in the workplace and helps protect our employees, assets, and clients. If the employee fails to get green result for the background verification their employment with Innova Solutions will be terminated as per the policy.

Controlled Substances in the Workplace

Innova Solutions promotes the health, safety, and productivity of its employees by regulating the consumption of certain substances in its workplaces (buildings, grounds, and parking structures).

- Employees who engage in the unlawful sale, distribution, transportation, or attempted sale, possession, or purchase of controlled substances while at the workplace, or while performing in a work-related capacity, will be subject to criminal, civil and disciplinary penalties. Such illegal acts, even if engaged in off duty, may result in disciplinary action.
- An employee may be required to undergo a confidential medical examination to ascertain the cause of impairment or disability when there exists a "reasonable suspicion" based on specific, reliable observations that such impairment or disability is a result of the use of alcohol or a controlled substance.
- If alcohol or controlled substance use or impairment is found to exist, Innova Solutions will determine the appropriate course disciplinary action which may include termination of employment.

Work Performance/Workplace conduct

To ensure orderly operations and provide the best possible work environment, Innova Solutions expects employees, whether working offsite/work from home or onsite, to follow rules of conduct. It is not possible to list all the forms of behavior that are considered unacceptable in the workplace.

The following are examples of rules of conduct that may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment -

- Insubordination, including disobedience, or failure or refusal to carry out assignments or instructions.
- Loafing, loitering, sleeping, or engaging in unauthorized personal business.
- Failure to provide accurate and complete information whenever such information is required by an authorized person.
- Negligence in performance of assigned duties.
- Unauthorized disclosure of confidential information or records

- Falsifying records or giving false information to other state agencies or to employees responsible for record keeping.
- Excessive absenteeism or any absence without notice
- Unauthorized use of telephones, mail system, or other company assets.
- Negligence or improper conduct leading to damage to company or customer-owned property.
- Sexual or other unlawful or unwelcome harassment.
- Possession of dangerous or unauthorized materials, such as explosives or firearms.
- Failure to comply with health, safety and sanitation requirements, rules, and regulations.
- Unauthorized or improper use or possession of identification cards, badges, or permits.
- Not displaying the ID cards and asset badges.
- Threatening, attempting, or doing bodily harm to another person, intimidating, interfering with, or using abusive language towards others.

Usage of company property

All employees shall protect the organization's assets and ensure their efficient use. Theft, loss, misuse, carelessness, and waste of assets have a direct impact on the company's profitability. All the assets shall be used for legitimate business purposes, the personal use of any software and business equipment is discouraged. Employee are prohibited from:

- Unauthorized or improper use of Innova Solutions property or equipment/asset, including vehicles, telephone, or mail service.
- Unauthorized posting or removal of notices or signs from bulletin boards.
- Unauthorized use, lending, borrowing, or duplicating of Innova Solutions keys.
- Unauthorized entry to property, including unauthorized entry outside of Assigned hours of work or entry to restricted areas.

- Employees may not utilize company equipment or infrastructure to access websites that display sexually suggestive or explicit content; represent racial, ethnic, or sexual discrimination or harassment; or that may be reasonably construed as offensive or demeaning by an ordinary viewer. There will be a strong presumption that any employee's access of content prohibited by the Code merits termination based on carelessness or willful misconduct that is inconsistent with every employee's responsibility to safeguard company systems and other assets.
- All electronic and telephonic communication systems and all communications and information transmitted by, received from, printed from, or stored in these systems are the property of the company. The company retains the right to monitor all its electronic and communication systems at its discretion including listening to and/or printing up and reading all voicemail and email messages stored in these systems.

Fair play in business

All employees of Innova Solutions are required to conduct business fairly with suppliers and business partners, clients, and those clients' customers. All Innova Solutions business affairs and negotiations involving our representatives are to be conducted on an ethical and legal basis. Business decisions are to be made based solely on commercial merit. Innova Solutions prohibits its employees from engaging in manipulation, concealment, abuse of confidential information, misrepresentation of material facts or other conduct or behavior that would negatively reflect on our company's reputation and further, expressly prohibits bribes, fraud, extortion, and corruption in the conduct of any Innova Solutions business.

Dress code and Personal Appearance

- Innova expects each employee to reflect a favorable image by appropriate dress, grooming and personal hygiene.
- Moderation and best judgment should be used in all these matters to assure the employee attire is suitable for work and the respective work environment.
- Dress that are too tight, too loose, too short, too long, too revealing, dirty, torn, with obscene signs/slogans, transparent or in any way offensive to fellow employees are not allowed to wear.
- There may be special instances when wearing other clothes, mainly traditional ones which will be announced prior by the HR department, else please refrain from wearing traditional attire.

Usage of social media

All employees are strictly prohibited from performing any social networking activity that is conducted with a company's e-mail address, that can be traced back to its domain name, or that uses assets of Innova Solutions. When participating in social networking activity, employees must identify themselves and must make clear to potential readers that the comments made, and opinions expressed are those of the individual and not that of the company. If the information posted could be connected to the company, employees should include the following disclaimer: "The views expressed are my personal views and do not necessarily reflect the views of Innova Solutions."

Do not engage in any conduct online that would not be acceptable in your workplace or that is unlawful. For example, do not make derogatory remarks, bully, intimidate, harass other users, use insults, or post content that is hateful, slanderous, threatening, discriminating, or pornographic.

Retaliation Prohibited

Innova Solutions prohibits retaliation against anyone for the good faith reporting of a perceived Code violation or cooperation with an internal or external investigation of such a violation. Such retaliation by any employee or third party acting on behalf of an employee is itself a violation of the Code. This "no retaliation" provision of the Code does not limit the company's recourse if the employee reporting the violation is ultimately found to have been a participant in the violation, or if the report is found to be a deliberate attempt to cause harm or harass another employee. Acts of retaliation should be reported immediately and will be promptly investigated and addressed.

Employment Records

Innova Solutions will maintain records that document the hiring and employment of all employees. Innova Solutions will strive to protect these records against unauthorized access by implementing appropriate security. Employees are required to partner with Human Resources to ensure that these records contain accurate personal information, including place of residence; marital status; dependents; immigration/employability status; and other data relevant to payroll and benefits administration; taxation and tax withholding; and compliance with local, state and country laws and regulations.
